REGULATION

PLANS, PROGRAMS, AND PROJECTS

4. EXCEPTIONS

The Project Review Committee does not review and make recommendations regarding either original or subsequent approval of

- a. Certain FI projects. There is an extra-PRC procedure for the approval of FI projects under which, regardless of the amounts involved, they may be submitted to the Project Review Committee either by the Deputy Director (Plans) or at the request of the Deputy Director for Central Intelligence.
- b. Projects not exceeding $25,000 in any one fiscal year which are approved by a Deputy Director ~~or the Assistant Director for Communications~~ and for which funds are available within the budget under which he operates, except those projects specified in paragraph 5a(3) below.
- c. Projects which the Director specifically authorizes to be submitted to him without Project Review Committee action.

5. FUNCTIONS

Subject to the exceptions listed in paragraph 4 above, the Project Review Committee reviews and makes recommendations regarding:

a. Original approval of:

- (1) All projects in amounts exceeding $25,000;
- (2) All projects in amounts of $25,000 or less when so requested by the Deputy Director sponsoring the project, i.e., when questions of significance which do not depend on dollar values are involved;
- (3) All real estate and construction projects and all external research projects; and
- (4) All projects and operational activities sponsored by the Assistant Director for Personnel, ~~and the Director of Training, and ADC.~~

b. Subsequent approval of:

- (1) All projects which, when initially approved by a Deputy Director ~~or the Assistant Director for Communication~~ were for an amount not exceeding $25,000 but for which, during the same fiscal year, additional amounts are required which bring the aggregate to more than $25,000;
